
GUIDING THE YOUNG CHILD'S BEHAVIOR

ECE 214Guiding the Young Child's Behavior*3.0 UNITS

Students will acquire knowledge, skills and dispositions in using individual and group guidance and problem-solving techniques to develop positive and supportive relationships with children. Methods will be practiced in promoting positive strategies of conflict resolution, and in developing personal self-control, self-motivation and positive self-esteem for the child, ages birth to eight.