

CORPORATE FINANCE

MAN 241Corporate Finance*3.0 UNITS

The financial problems and policies of a business corporation are discussed. The following areas are covered: financial planning, management of short-term and intermediate credit, working capital, trade credit, financial statements, retained earnings, credit and collection practices.